

National Policy Guidance
National Planning Practice Guidance 2014	The National Planning Practice Guidance (NPPG) was published on 6 March 2014 as a web-based resource. The NPPG has cancelled a number of previous planning guidance documents including the majority of previous Circulars and Letters to Chief Planning Officers. The NPPG was introduced following the Review of Government Planning Practice Guidance carried out by Lord Taylor with the aim of making the planning system simpler, clearer and easier for people to use. The guidance contains 41 categories from 'Advertisements' to 'Water Supply'. The NPPG is guidance designed to supplement to the National Planning Policy Framework (NPPF). It is therefore a material consideration in planning decisions.
National Planning Policy Framework 2012	The NPPF reiterates the statutory requirement that applications for planning permission must be determined in accordance with the development plan, unless material considerations indicate otherwise. The NPPF is a material consideration in planning decisions. It also states that the document should be read in conjunction with the newly released policy statement on Gypsies and Travellers. The purpose of the planning system is to contribute to the achievement of sustainable development. There are 3 dimensions to sustainable development: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • An economic role – contributing to building a strong, responsive and competitive economy, by ensuring that sufficient land of the right type is available in the right places to support growth and innovation • A social role – supporting strong, vibrant and healthy communities by providing the supply of housing required to meet the needs of present and future generations, and by creating a high quality built development with accessible local services; • An environmental role – contributing to protecting and enhancing our natural, built and historic environment. At the heart of the NPPF is a presumption in favour of sustainable development, which should be seen as a golden thread running through both plan-making and decision making. For decision making this means: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Approving development proposals that accord with the development plan without delay; and • Where the development plan is absent, silent or relevant policies are out of date, granting permission unless any adverse impacts of doing so would significantly and demonstrably outweigh the benefits, when assessed against the policies in this Framework taken as a whole; or specific policies in this Framework indicate development should be restricted. (Para 14).

	Local planning authorities should approach decision-taking in a positive way to foster the delivery of sustainable development. The relationship between decision making and plan-making should be seamless, translating plans into high quality development on the ground. (Para 186). They should seek for solutions rather than problems and decision-takers at every level should seek to approve applications for sustainable development where possible. Early engagement in pre-application discussions is encouraged where it is offered. Developers should be encouraged to engage with the community. The planning system is plan-led. Planning law requires that applications for planning permission must be determined in accordance with the development plan, unless material considerations indicate otherwise. The Framework is a material consideration in planning decisions. (Para 196) In assessing and determining development proposals, local planning authorities should apply the presumption in favour of sustainable development (Para 197). Implementation The policies in the NPPF apply from the day of publication (27th March 2012). For 12 months from the day of publication, decision makers may continue to give full weight to relevant policies adopted since 2004 even if there is a limited degree of conflict with the Framework. The Hinckley and Bosworth Local Plan was adopted in February 2001, as such it is necessary to review all saved local plan policies according to their consistency with the framework. Due weight must then be given according to their consistency with the NPPF. These are appraised within each application late item. For clarity it should be noted that the following national policy guidance documents referred to in the main agenda are superseded by the NPPF: Circular 05/05 Circular 01/06 NPPF (Draft) All Planning Policy Guidance and Statements
The Community Infrastructure Levy (CIL) Regulations 2010	Part 11, Regulation 122 provides a statutory duty in respect of planning obligations and requires them to be necessary, directly related and fairly and reasonably related in scale and kind to the development proposed. The Regulation does not replace Circular 05/2005 but gives it a statutory foothold in planning legislation.
